El Día de la Candelaria (Candlemas Day) is a big feast in Mexico. It differs from the Candle Mass in the United States, for not only do candles get blessed but the baby Jesus from your nativity set is presented and receives a blessing. Día de la Candelaria is celebrated on February 2nd, falling 40 days after Christmas. According to Jewish law it was customary to bring a newborn baby to the temple. On this day your Nativity scene is put away with a party by the person who got the Baby Jesus in his/her piece of bread during the Three Kings celebration. This person also presents the baby Jesus with a new christening gown when being presented for the blessing. In Mexico, the niño Jesus is placed in the nativity scene on Christmas Eve and on February the child Jesus, in fine clothes, is presented in church. The clothing is white to represent El Nino de las Palomas (The Child of the Doves or The Child of the White Lillies), which signifies the purity of his being. A party follows.

Day 1-

Matt. 25:31-46, I was a stranger & you welcomed me.

Eternal God, You call us to welcome the stranger. Help us by your Spirit to live as brothers & sisters welcoming all in your name & living in the justice of your kingdom. This we pray in Jesus name.
Amen.

Day 2-

Gen. 1:26-28, God created humankind in God's own image.

Gracious God, draw near to those who are victims of human trafficking. May your Church be united in compassion & courage to work for the freedom, dignity and peace of all. This we pray in the name of the Triune God
Amen.

Day 3-

Psalm 24:1-6, Lord, we are the people who seek your face

By your heavenly grace, create in us a clean heart & a pure mind that we may give glory to your name. May the Churches attain unity of purpose for the sanctification of your people, through Jesus Christ who lives & reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit for ever & ever.
Amen

Day 4-

Psalm 34:1-14, Seek peace and pursue it.

God of all comfort & hope, your resurrection defeated the violence of the cross. As your people, may we be a visible sign that the violence of the world will be overcome. This we pray in the name of our risen Lord.
Amen.

Day 5-

Luke 18:35-43, Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!

Loving God, You lift up the poor and distressed and restore their dignity. Hear now our cries for the poor of our world. Restore their hope and lift them up, that all your people may be one.
This we pray in Jesus name.
Amen.

Day 6-

Phil. 2:1-4, Let each of you look not to your own interests, but to the interests of others.

Almighty God, give courage and strength to your Church to continually proclaim justice and righteousness in situations of domination and oppression. As we celebrate our unity in Christ, may your Holy Spirit help us to look to the needs of others.
Amen.

Day 7-

Psalm 127:1, Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain.

Gracious God, you sent your son to be born in an ordinary family with ancestors who were both faithful & sinful. We ask your blessing upon all families, within households & communities. We especially pray for the unity of the Christian family so that the world may believe, In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Day 8-

Ephesians 2:13-19, He has broken down the dividing wall.

Lord, we humbly ask that, by your grace, the churches throughout the world may become instruments of your Peace. Through their joint action as ambassadors and agents of your healing, reconciling love among divided peoples, may your name be hallowed and glorified.
Amen.
